

Selective Estrogen Receptor Modulators-Like Library

Screening compounds for drug discovery projects related with ERs

I would like to offer you Selective Estrogen Receptor Modulators-Like Library (1210 compounds in total). It is a special screening collection containing drug-like compounds with predicted selective estrogen receptor modulators (SERMs) activity. The library has been accurately designed with two ligand-based approaches - pharmacophore screening and Bayesian modeling. All compounds are in stock. The library is for prompt delivery, cherry-picking is available.
